INSTRUCTIONS FOR DEMONSTRATING COMPLIANCE WITH REQUIREMENTS

4.2 To demonstrate compliance with the mandatory requirements for bidding set forth in Article 75, paragraph 1, items 1), 2) and 4) of PPL, the bidder must provide the abovementioned evidence.

When compiling the bid, the bidder must give a statement (Form 6.2) to the effect that it has complied with the duties under applicable regulations on occupational safety and health, employment and working conditions and environment protection, as well as that there is no injunction in force at the time of submission of bids banning it from conducting business activities (Article 75 paragraph 2 of PPL).

4.3 Requirements which must be complied with by subcontractors in accordance with Article 80 of the Law

For subcontractors, the bidder must provide evidence of compliance with the mandatory requirements under Article 75 paragraph 1 items 1), 2) and 4) of PPL.

4.4 Requirements which must be complied with by each member of a consortium in accordance with Article 81 of the Law

Members of a consortium must provide evidence of compliance with the mandatory requirements under Article 75 paragraph 1 items 1), 2) and 4) of PPL, and the requirements under Article 75 paragraph 2 of PPL (text of the statement is contained in the Form 6.2).

All members of a bidder consortium are required to provide a statement (Form 2) to the effect that they have complied with the duties under applicable regulations on occupational safety and health, employment and working conditions and environment protection.

Bidders are advised of the following:

When submitting their bids, bidders that are registered with the register of bidders maintained by the Business Registers Agency do not have to provide evidence under Article 75 paragraph 1 items 1), 2) and 4) of the Public Procurement Law, since this is publicly available at the official website of the Business Registers Agency. They can only give a statement on public availability of evidence where they should indicate website of the competent authority, i.e. to clearly indicate that they are included in the register of bidders.

The Contracting Authority shall not refuse as unacceptable a bid that does not contain evidence required by the Bidding Dossier, if the bidder specifies in the bid a website where such required information is publicly available.

Evidence of compliance with the requirements can be submitted as uncertified copies, while the Contracting Authority can, before reaching a decision on the award of the contract, demand from the bidder whose bid is found to be the most advantageous to present for inspection the original or a certified copy of all or any individual evidence.

If the bidder does not present for inspection the original or a certified copy of the requested evidence within the specified time limit, the Contracting Authority will reject the bidder's bid as unacceptable.

Note: The bidder or the contractor must without delay inform the Contracting Authority in writing of any change regarding compliance with the requirements of the public procurement procedure which occurs before reaching of the decision or conclusion of the contract or during the term of the contract and must document such change in the stipulated manner.

Foreign bidders:

If any evidence mentioned in Article 77 of the Law is not issued in a country where the bidder has its head office, instead of such evidence the bidder can enclose its statement in writing, given under threat of perjury or fraud and certified by a judiciary or administrative authority, notary public or other competent authority of that country.

If the bidder has its head office in a foreign country, the Contracting Authority can check whether documents demonstrating the bidder's compliance with the requested requirements were issued by competent authorities of that country.

4.4. ELEMENTS OF THE CONTRACT WHICH WILL BE NEGOTIATED

Negotiation shall proceed immediately upon bid opening. The element subject to negotiation shall be the quoted price.

Only authorised representatives of the bidders may participate in the negotiation and they must present to the Contracting Authority's commission their written authorisation for participating in the negotiation before the start of the negotiation procedure, to demonstrate they are duly authorised to participate in such procedure.

The negotiation shall take place with the bidder and the bidder's authorised representative shall communicate/submit his/her final bid.

If the bidder's authorised representative does not participate in the negotiation procedure and does not present a new bid, the price quoted in the bid already submitted will be deemed to be its final price.

Minutes shall be taken of the negotiation procedure.

5. INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS

5.1. Language of bids

The Bidding Dossier will be prepared in the Serbian and the English languages, while the public procurement procedure will be conducted in the Serbian language.

Minutes of bid opening will be prepared in the Serbian language, while the decision on contract award will be prepared in Serbian and English languages.

Replies to questions will be given in a language in which the question was made (Serbian or English). The contract will be signed in Serbian and English languages.

Documents issued by foreign competent public authorities in a country where the bidder has its head office which are originally in a foreign language must be translated into the Serbian language by a sworn-in-court or a certified translator for the Serbian language.

If during examination and evaluation of bids the Contracting Authority finds that a part of a bid submitted in a foreign language should be translated in the Serbian language, it will specify a time limit for the bidder to translate that part of the bid.

In case of dispute, the version of the bid in the Serbian language and enclosed evidence translated into the Serbian language shall prevail.

Bids with enclosed documents in a foreign language as required evidence without the original or a copy of certified translation can be rejected as unacceptable due to a material deficiency in accordance with Article 106 paragraph 1 item 5 (the bid contains a deficiency due to which is not possible to determine the actual contents of the bid or to compare it with other bids).

5.2. Submission of Bids

Bidders submit their bids in person at the Contracting Authority's address Belgrade, Čika Ljubina 8, second floor, Financial Service or by mail.

The bidder shall complete the price structure and price structure form.

The bid must contain:

- 1) Completed and signed bid form and the financial bid and price structure form;
- 2) Evidence of compliance with the mandatory requirements for participation in the procedure stated under item 4.1. or notification on a website where such data are available;
- 3) Completed and signed Statement of Compliance with Duties under Applicable Regulations (Form 2);
- 4) Statement of Independent Bid (Form 3);
- 5) Form of Costs of Preparation of Bid (Form 4), submission not mandatory.

5.3. Manner of Filling in Information in Bids

Bidders must fill in legibly forms and statements given in the Bidding Dossier, i.e. information which must constitute integral part thereof, while their authorised officers must sign them.

Each bidder can submit only one bid.

Bidders that bid independently cannot at the same time be part of a consortium or bid as a subcontractor or be a member of multiple consortiums.

5.4. Manner of Modifying, Supplementing and Withdrawal of Bids

A bidder may modify, supplement or withdraw his/her bid at any time before the deadline for bid submission in the same manner in which he/she submitted a bid, by providing written notice marked "Bid Modification", "Bid Supplementation" or "Bid Withdrawal" (Public Procurement No. PPJN 1/2020). The bidder must clearly specify which parts of the bid are subsequently modified or which documents are subsequently provided. After the expiry of the deadline for bid submission, bidders cannot modify, supplement or withdraw their bids.

5.5. Requirements Regarding Validity Period of Bids, Time Limit for Delivery and Warranty Period

The validity period of bids cannot be shorter than 30 days from the date of opening of bids.

If shorter period is specified, the bid will be rejected due to a material deficiency. (the validity period must be stated in the designated field in the Bid Form.)

The selected bidder must provide the service to the extent, in the manner and within the timeframe set out in the Public Procurement Contract.

5.6. Currency and Indication and Presentation of the Price in the Bid

The price in the bid may be specified in RSD or in a foreign currency, EUR.

The price shall be presented inclusive and exclusive of value added tax, inclusive of all costs for the bidder in the execution of this public procurement.

If the price is presented in EUR, for the purpose of bid comparison in the bid evaluation procedure, amounts shall be translated to RSD at the middle exchange rate of the National Bank of Serbia for EUR on the date of bid opening.

Payments to domestic bidders that quoted price EUR shall be made in dinar equivalent translated at the official middle exchange rate of the National Bank of Serbia on the invoicing date.

Payments to foreign bidders shall be made in EUR.

Prices shall be quoted in the financial bid form.

The Contracting Authority shall not allow for price increases and the quoted price shall be final.

If it considers a price quoted in a bid to be unusually low, the Contracting Authority shall act in accordance with Article 92 of the PPL, i.e. it will demand a detailed explanation for all its elements it considers relevant.

5.7. Information on Ways in which Additional Explanations may be Requested from Bidders after Bid Opening and in which Bidders and Their Subcontractors May be Controlled

The Contracting Authority may demand from bidders to provide additional explanations which will help to examine, evaluate and compare bids and may furthermore conduct controls (inspection) of bidders.

With the bidder's consent, the Contracting Authority may correct arithmetic errors identified during bid examination after the bid opening procedure.

5.8. Costs of Preparation of Bids

Costs of preparation and submission of bids will be exclusively borne by bidders.

The bidder cannot request from the Contracting Authority to reimburse costs of preparation of the bid.

5.9. Protection of Confidentiality of Data of Bidders and Contracting Authority

The Contracting Authority shall keep as confidential all bidders' data contained in the bids which are to be treated as confidential under a special regulation and which are marked by the bidder as such in the bid with the word "CONFIDENTIAL". The Contracting Authority shall refuse to provide any information that would breach the confidentiality of data received in the bid.

Evidence of compliance with the mandatory requirements, the quoted price and other data contained in the bid which are relevant for the application of bid evaluation and ranking criteria shall not be considered confidential.

The Contracting Authority demands confidentiality for the data it makes available to the bidders, including their subcontractors.

5.10. Additional Information or Clarifications Concerning Bid Preparation

An interested party may request in writing additional information or clarifications concerning bid preparation, where it can also point to the Contracting Authority any possible observed shortcomings or irregularities in the Tender Dossier, not later than 5 days before the expiry of the bid submission period.

Submitted requests for additional information or clarifications concerning bid preparation shall contain the interested person's address, e-mail and phone and fax number in accordance with Article 20 of the Public Procurement Law which provides for communication in the public procurement procedure.

The Contracting Authority shall publish its reply within three days on the Public Procurement Portal and on its website.

Interested parties shall send any such request for additional information or clarifications concerning bid preparation to the Contracting Authority's address: Tourism Organisation of Serbia, Belgrade, Čika Ljubina 8 or e-mail address: Zorica Jovanov zjovanov@serbia.travel, Ljiljana Cerovic ljcerovic@serbia.travel, Vesna Ninic yninic@serbia.travel, Jelena Bogdanović jbogdanovic@serbia.travel, on weekdays days (Monday-Friday), from 8:00AM to 3:00PM.

5.11. Criterion for Contract Award

The criterion for evaluation of bids is the total quoted price exclusive of VAT.

The maximum score based on this criterion will be assigned to the bid with the lowest quoted price exclusive of VAT. All other bidders will be assigned a proportionately lower score and their bids will be ranked accordingly.

If two or more bids receive the same score, the more advantageous bid will be the one which states a longer payment period (as indicated in the Bid Form). If bids still receive the same score, the selection will be made by draw.

5.12. Technical Evaluation of Bids

After technical evaluation, only those bids that were submitted timely and full comply with the requirements set out in the Bidding Dossier, i.e. bids which are considered appropriate and acceptable, will be taken into consideration. Inappropriate bids will not be taken into consideration and will be rejected.

5.13. Reasons for Bid Rejection

Bids will be rejected if:

- 1) They are untimely
- 2) They are materially deficient
- 3) They are inappropriate
- 4) They restrict the Contracting Authority's rights
- 5) They impose conditions on the Contracting Authority's rights
- 6) They restrict the bidder's rights
- 7) They exceed the estimated public procurement value

5.14. Motion for the Protection of Rights

A motion for the protection of rights should be submitted to the Contracting Authority, with a copy to the Republic Committee.

A motion for the protection of rights may be filed throughout the public procurement process against any action of the Contracting Authority, unless provided otherwise by the Law.

A motion for the protection of rights which challenges the type of the procedure or the content of the Call for Bids or the Bidding Dossier will be considered timely if received by the Contracting Authority not later than seven days before expiry of the bid submission period, while in case of small value public procurement or qualification procedures such motion shall be considered timely if received by the Contracting Authority three days before the expiry of the bid submission period, regardless of the mode of their receipt, provided however that the person who submitted the motion had previously notified any identified defects and irregularities in accordance with Article 63 paragraph 2 of the Law and the Contracting Authority failed to remedy them.

A motion for the protection of rights which challenges actions undertaken by the Contracting Authority before the expiry of the bid submission period, but after the expiry of the period referred to in paragraph 3 of Article 149 of the Public Procurement Law, will be considered timely if submitted by the expiry of the bid submission period.

The provisions of paragraphs 3 and 4 of Article 149 of the PPL shall not apply in case of negotiated procedures without a call for bids, if the person who submitted the motion or his/her related party did not participate in that procedure.

After the passing of a decision to award contract, a decision to enter into a framework agreement, a decision to recognise qualifications and a decision to terminate the procedure, the time limit for filing motions for the protection of rights shall be 10 days from publication of the respective decision on the Public Procurement Portal, or five days in case of a small value public procurement or in case of a decision to awards a contract under a framework agreement in accordance with Article 40a of the Law.

A motion for the protection of rights may not challenge actions undertaken by the Contracting Authority in the public procurement procedure if the person who submitted the motion was aware or should have been aware of the reasons for filing such motion before the expiry of the period for making such motions in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 4 of Article 149 of the PPL and the person had not filed the motion before the expiry of that period.

If a motion for the protection of rights is repeated in the same public procurement procedure by the same person, such motion cannot challenge any actions of the Contracting Authority of which the person who submitted the motion was aware or should have been aware at the time of filing the previous motion.

A motion for the protection of rights shall not stop further activities of the Contracting Authority in the public procurement procedure in accordance with Article 150 of the PPL.

The Contracting Authority shall post notice of filed motions for the protection of rights on the Public Procurement Portal and on its website not later than two days of receipt of any motion for the protection of rights which contains the information required in Annex 3N.

A motion for the protection of rights shall be filed directly by e-mail to jbogdanovic@serbia.travel and yninic@serbia.travel during the working hours of the Contracting Authority, on weekdays from Monday to Friday from 07:30AM to 3:30PM or by registered mail with receipt confirmation to the following address: National Tourism Organisation of Serbia, Belgrade, Čika Ljubina 8, with a designation of the supplies and the public procurement number. If a motion for the protection of rights is sent by e-mail, preferably this document should be provided as a scanned copy bearing the signature of the authorised officer of the bidder (the person who files the motion) and as a MS Word document, to enable faster and more efficient handling of the motion by the Contracting Authority (without having to retype the claims made in the motion).

Fee Amount

A person filing a motion for the protection of rights shall pay a fee in the following amount to the designated account of the budget of the Republic of Serbia:

- 1) RSD 60,000 in small-value public procurement procedure and negotiated public procurement without the publishing of a call for bids;
- 2) RSD 120,000 if the motion for the protection of rights is filed before bid opening and if the estimated value is not higher than RSD 120,000,000; (Note: the estimated value of this public procurement is less than RSD 120,000,000).

1. A certificate of payment of the fee required in Article 156 of the PPL which contains the following elements:

- (1) It was issued by a bank;
- (2) It constitutes evidence of payment of the fee, which means it must contain information that the payment or transfer order was executed and the date on which it was executed. * The Republic Commission may examine the relevant statement of a recording account provided by the Treasury

Administration of the Ministry of Finance and thus additionally verify the execution of the transfer order.

(3) The amount of the relevant fee required in Article 156 of the PPL;

(4) Account number: 840-30678845-06;

(5) Payment code: 153 or 253;

(6) Reference: information on the number or mark of the public procurement in respect of which the motion for the protection of rights is filed;

(7) Purpose: ZZP; name of the Contracting Authority; the number or mark of the public procurement in respect of which the motion for the protection of rights is filed;

(8) Recipient: budget of the Republic of Serbia;

(9) Name of the payer/person who files the motion for the protection of rights in respect of which the fee is paid;

(10) Signature of the bank's authorised officer.

2. Payment order, first copy, certified by the signature of the authorised officer of the respective bank or post, which contains also all other elements required from a certificate of payment in accordance with item 1.

3. A certificate issued by the Treasury Administration of the Ministry of Finance of the Republic of Serbia, signed, which contains all elements required from a certificate of payment in accordance with item 1, except those stated under (1) and (10), for entities filing a motion for the protection of rights that hold a sub-account within the relevant consolidated treasury account, administered by the Treasury Administration (budget spending units, spending units receiving funds of compulsory social insurance organisations and other spending units receiving public funds);

4. A certificate issued by the National Bank of Serbia, which contains all elements required from a certificate of payment in accordance with item 1, for entities filing a motion for the protection of rights (banks and other entities) that hold an account with the National Bank of Serbia in accordance with the law and other regulations.
